

Frailty and Interventions

- Increase understanding around frailty and prevention, early diagnosis and management.
- Shift the approach from reactive disease to preventive, proactive and personalised care planning.
- Develop and implement holistic intervention programmes, including exercise, nutrition, medication review and psychological assessments.
- Change the culture from the 'frailty elderly' to 'an older person living with frailty'.