Acknowledgments

The 3rd International Conference on Modern Foreign Languages, Linguistics and Literature took place in Preston, United Kingdom, on June 20, 2016. The conference was organised with the support of the School of Language, Literature and International Studies (now School of Humanities and Social Sciences) of the University of Central Lancashire, under the umbrella of the Research Excellence Framework, the new system for assessing the quality of research in UK higher education institutions (co-ordinated by Dr Michael Thomas). The conference was aimed at giving early-career researchers the opportunity to disseminate their research and to network with other researchers, and it was attended by more than 80 people, among which 33 speakers from different corners of the British Isles, and from abroad, including countries such as Bulgaria, Ireland, Italy, Spain, the Netherlands, Tunisia, Saudi Arabia, USA, Thailand, China and India. The success of the conference is also owed to the excellent supporting team of volunteers who helped out on the day, and especially Dr Oris Tom-Lawyer, Miguel Angel Saona-Vallejos, Mawaheb Khojah and Baetty from the University of Central Lancashire. The conference was also attended by our guest keynote speaker Prof. Hayo Reinders, currently Dean of the Graduate School of Education and Director of the Anaheim University Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) in TESOL Program.

The papers included in this special issue underwent a rigorous process of peer review from local and international academics. The editor would here like to express his deep gratitude to the reviewers, and especially (in order of participation) Dr Chih-Ying Lin (Feng Chia University, Taiwan), Dr Miriam Ebsworth (NYU Steinhardt, USA), Dr Daniel Burkle (University of Central Lancashire), Dr Theresa Catalano (University of Nebraska, USA), Dr Tania Ionin (University of Illinois, USA), Dr Joshua Bonzo (Washington State University, USA), Dr Eva Kartchava (Carleton University, Canada), Dr Jason Martel (Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey, USA), Prof. Emerita Greta Vollmer (Sonoma State University, USA), Dr Pamela Weseley (University of Iowa, USA), Dr Heekyeong Lee (Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey, USA), Dr Jun Zhao (Augusta University, USA), Prof. Emeritus Bernard Spolsky (Bar-Ilan University, Israel), Prof. Todd Hernández (Marquette University, USA), and Dr Linda S. Abe (Indiana University, USA). Thanks also to Reanne Crane for her technical support with the drafts. Last but not least, a special word of thanks is also owed to Dr Michael Thomas as well as Dr Christian Jones and Dr Daniel Waller for their support prior to publication.
