

Performers

Morven Macbeth

Graeme Rose

Tea Dancers

Barbara J. Clark

Sheila Sims

Beth Holland

Barry Winship

Colin Moore

Betty Winship

Keith Adams

Doug Church

Colin Chappel

Brenda Hughes

Pat Chappel

Val White

Additional audio recordings: Choy Bishop, Pauline Hodder, Margaret Howe, Marion Newton, Ilona Poyser, Val White

Singers

Soprano

Ruth Hawley

Germina Jauzelon

Annie Quill

Sarah Trevers

Alto

Angela Kay

Angela Smallwood

Janice Weston-Smith

Tenor

Rachel Emmett

Richard Flewitt

Ian Harris

Bass

Jezz Fleet

Dave Pitt

Robin Reece-Crawford

Sound/music by Neil Johnson

Floor manager Ella Judge

Choreographed and co-directed by Sara Giddens

Written and co-directed by Simon Jones

With special thanks to Jeff Holland, Glynis Martin, Rachel Emmett, Jim Hendley, Joy Mukuka, Paul Russ, and all at Dance4's International Centre for Choreography. Chris Flux, Shona Powell, Richard Statham at Lakeside Arts and Martin Blackham and Tony Judge from Creative Forum.

Bodies in Flight formed in 1989, make performance that challenges and re-energizes the conventional relationship between audiences, performers and place, mixing movement with new writing, and often collaborating across art forms and communities. For more info about Life Class and Bodies in Flight visit bodiesinflight.co.uk

DON'T MISS...

The Exhibition: FLESH & TEXT, reflecting on 30 years of the company's performance-making

Runs from Tuesday 11 June – Sunday 30 June
Admission FREE

The exhibition draws together still and moving images, alongside artefacts and commentary about this pioneering company's work, and explores in three parts: the company's early professional practice; the development of its research methodology working across a range of collaborations; and finally its recent work collaborating with different communities

The exhibition Flesh & Text is supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England and by The University of Bristol Theatre collection, a publicly accessible museum which houses the Bodies in Flight archive.

Bodies in Flight (UK) Life Class

Friday 21 June
Djanogly Theatre, Lakeside Arts

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

