

Lifelines.

An exploration through installation into how traditional printmaking techniques can be combined with new acrylic and digital technologies to create a new printmaking language?

