Tracey's nursing her success

Staff nurse Tracey Ginger recently exchanged her uniform for a cap and gown at the University of Central Lancashire Awards Ceremony in Preston.

Tracey, 33, from Leyland, graduated with a DipHE in Nursing. Her caring career began at the age of 16, when she started working in a nursing home. After the birth of her children, Shannon, 10 and Jack aged 9, she began to study again and eventually enrolled at the University on the three year course, which combined practical work on the wards with theory in the classroom.

Now a staff nurse at the Royal Preston Hospital, Tracey, who specialises in adult nursing, is looking forward to achieving another ambition.

"I would eventually like to move into palliative care", she says. "My aim is to be a Macmillan Nurse."
