List of Images

It has been argued that most, if not all, of the images in this study were known to the public in reproduced as well as original form. To be consistent with this, they are listed as illustrative works, except where they have been specifically referred to as fine art works. Where this thesis has referred to one image in both its original and reproduced form, details of the original follow in brackets after each entry.

TAKE NOTICE.

That on and after New Year’s Day, 1902, by act of Parliament, it is rendered a punishable offence to serve children under 14 years of age with intoxicating liquors, except in sealed and corked vessels, in quantities of not less than one reputed pint, seller and sender being both liable.

Thinking parents, anxious for the children’s welfare, will know that the best way to observe this law will be to keep the children from the public-house.
