

The Expanded City

Friday 18th November

Between 12 and 3pm (drop in any time)

Ham and Jam cafe, 50 Lancaster Road, Preston, PR1 1DD

Free. Tea, coffee and cake provided

Join us for an informal afternoon of artwork and conversations about The Expanded City, and collect a free publication documenting the first 12 months of the project.

The Expanded City is a three-year programme of artworks and events designed to generate debate about the City Deal scheme. Within Preston, the City Deal will take place in three zones on the periphery and in the centre of the city, and includes the development of over 5,000 new homes, as well as new roads and amenities.

Arts organisation In Certain Places have been working with artists Olivia Keith, Gavin Renshaw, Ian Nesbitt, Ruth Levene, Emily Speed and writer Lauren Velvick to examine existing characteristics and future plans for places within the City Deal areas. There will be artworks on display and the artists will be available throughout the day to talk about their research.

We look forward to seeing you there!

For more information, please email info@incertainplaces.org

www.incertainplaces.org

@incertainplaces

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND