

Table 1: Children's Direct Exposure to Domestic Homicide

Type of Exposure	DHRs (n=55)
Child died	2
Child injured	3
Child directly witnessed homicide	6
Child saw mother's body post homicide	5
Child called for help	5
Children in house at time of homicide but extent of exposure uncertain	5
Total number where child/children had some exposure	17

Table 2: Service Involvement in Families in 55 Domestic Homicide Reviews

Service	DHRs (n=55)
Family Centre	30 (55%)
Children's Social Care	27 (49%)
Health Visitor/Midwife	27 (49%)
Education	20 (36%)
Housing/Homelessness service	20 (36%)
Police	15 (27%)
Mental Health Services (victim)	14 (25%)
Mental Health Services (perpetrator)	14 (25%)
Substance Misuse Services (victim)	7 (13%)
Substance Misuse Services (perpetrator)	7 (13%)
Women's Aid/other specialist DV organisation	7 (13%)
IDVA	6 (11%)
MARAC	7 (13%)
Other service including GP, CAMHS, Solicitor, Probation	20 (36%)
No service involvement	2 (4%)