

Doctrines of the Shepherd Street Mission.

The Doctrines of the Mission are—That mankind through the fall are wholly sinful and depraved—having in them nothing good and are utterly unable of themselves to better their sad condition. That all good in man and the disposition and power to seek it must come from God, come through Christ and be begotten by the Holy Ghost. That while in the Divine order of things human instrumentality is used in promoting man's eternal interest, the Triune God—Father, Son and Holy Ghost must be all in all in the work of his salvation. That "Repentance unto life" is the Gift of God, His Gift through Christ—His Gift by the Spirit—That by faith and faith alone a man is justified, faith which is of the operation of the Holy Spirit and consisting of a simple reliance on the atonement of Christ for salvation. That by this faith, faith in Christ, faith alone a man is justified, regenerated, sanctified, wholly saved now, saved to the utmost, saved for ever. That where this faith is, it works by love, love to God and man, and evinces its existence and reality by uniform obedience to every Divine requirement.

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace. (Ephesians 1c., 7v.)

And without shedding of blood is no remission. (Hebrews 9c., 22v.)

And the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

(1st John 1c., 7v.)
