War Will Not Hold Up Father Christmas

MR. JENNIE SHAFFER will this Christmas maintain unbroken a tradition started by her late husband in 1910, of seeing that every crippled child in Blackpool has some Christmas cheer. She is sending out a postal order for 2s. 6d. to each child. It was her husband's last wish when he died that the custom should be continued. At one time the children attended a Christmas party.

Lytham Broadcast

A big audience assembled in the Lowther Pavilion, Lytham, on Saturday night, for a concert given by the Blackpool Glee and TOYS and books numbering 323 were received at Leyland Congregational Church annual toy service yesterday afternoon for the Shepherd-street Mission, Preston, for whom a collection amounting to £8 6s. was also made. Children from the Mission contributed a programme of carols and recitations, and joined with the Congregational scholars in receiving the toys. On Christmas morning Scouts and Guides from the church will walk to and from Preston to assist at the yearly breakfast and distribution of toys at the Mission.

R.S.P.C.A. convictions during the past month have shown a sharp decline from 63 to 49. Of these
