

SSM
21

FATHER CHRISTMAS COMES THROUGH THE WINDOW

Owing to the narrowness of the chimneys at the Shepherd-street Children's Home, Preston, Father Christmas made his usual entrance for the first time in many years, through the window. Here he is being eagerly received by the delighted children. Photo: "The Lancashire Daily Post"

1,500 children have been cared for and turned into good citizens. Photo: "The Lancashire Daily Post"