

Bad Apple Club

Friday October 7th @ Adelphi, Fylde Road

Zeema Zees

Loud, feisty garage-blues trio which would sound more suited to a smoky underground garage club in Detroit. These smartly dressed chaps are sure to get some liquor-fueled ass wiggling going on

The Greats

Sun drenched indie-pop from an exceptionally talented new band with a fine ear for delicate melodies and harmonious sounds.

Yena Veldt

Screeching guitars of Sonic Youth and the jarring chaotics of the Fall, this guitar music is definitely on the out-there side of indie rock, and that's nothing but a good thing.
