

HOW DO YOU IMPROVISE MUSIC? HOW DO YOU PLAY TOGETHER?

Whether you've been playing for five years or fifty years, this book provides no-nonsense guidance to inspire and assist. Practical exercises sit alongside the thoughts of experienced musicians.

It's hands-on and colourful with minimal text used to introduce big ideas that musicians can explore through what they enjoy doing most... playing!

DR SIMON PARTRIDGE IS A HIGHLY EXPERIENCED MUSIC EDUCATOR, RESEARCHER AND BAND MUSICIAN.

Developed over more than ten years based at the University of Central Lancashire, his Cold Bath Street project has examined in depth how a band functions, particularly when improvising.

Shared through workshops, talks, recordings and concerts, his practice supports grassroots music communities through education and facilitates opportunities for musicians to play together.
